

Specific websites relating to WPA Art and Classroom Curricula:

Post Office Murals Special Interest Group (SIG)

<http://communitydisc.westside66.org/html/colette/muralsSIG/default.html>

Post Office Murals in Nebraska

<http://communitydisc.westside66.org/html/sigs/posters/listofmurals.html>

Texas Post Office Murals

<http://communitydisc.westside66.org/html/colette/muralsSIG/Texas.html>

Curriculum Tie-ins

<http://communitydisc.westside66.org/html/sigs/posters/waystouse.html>

Participating Teachers and Their Plans

(click on a teacher's name to view the unit that he/she has planned utilizing the post office murals.

<http://communitydisc.westside66.org/html/sigs/posters/teacherplans.html>

The New Deal Art Project—Classroom Connection

Matthew R. Fidler, Rome City School District 112

East Thomas Street, Rome, NY 13440

Phone: 315-334-7400 Fax: 315-334-7409

Email mrfidler@syr.edu

<http://www.wpamurals.com/curricul.htm>

Arkansas Post Office Mural Project

<http://uca.edu/postofficemurals/home/>

AHPP Education Program (Arkansas Historic Preservation Project)

<http://www.arkansaspreservation.com/>

FDR and Eleanor Roosevelt: American Visionaries

www.cr.nps.gov/museum

Lesson Plan & Activity

Museum of New Mexico Statewide Programs and Education - Mural Painting Throughout Time

http://www.museumeducation.org/curricula_activity_frescoes.html

EDSite ment: Dust Bowl Days

Teach students about the Great Depression era through the ballads of Woody Guthrie, the novels of John Steinbeck, and Works Progress Administration (WPA) photographs

<http://edsitement.neh.gov/how-teachers-can-make-most-dust-bowl/related-edsitement-lesson-plans-and-other-content-dust-bowl>

Ellis Wilson: A High School Art Lesson

This model of an activity in which students create an original painting in response to the documentary about African American WPA artist "Ellis Wilson-So Much to Paint," by Kentucky Educational Television

<https://www.ket.org/artstoolkit/visual/lessonplan/>

The Great Depression and the Arts

A Unit of Study for Grades 8-12

<http://newdeal.feri.org>

Using WPA Posters In the Classroom

This blog entry gives ideas on how to use the Library of Congress' online collection of WPA posters in lesson plans.

<http://blogs.loc.gov/teachers/2011/08/wpa-posters-colorful-messages-in-dark-economic-times>

NEW DEAL NETWORK

<http://newdeal.feri.org>

<http://www.gsa.gov/finearts>